REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2004-2005 school year at Belton Middle School has been extremely productive. Major accomplishments were:

Maintained a "Good" rating on the absolute score on the 2004 report card

Three students identified as Duke Scholars

Continued success in the Regional Science Fair (6th and 7th grades participated) with three Silver and one Gold award

Successful participation of our 8th grade students in the Michelin North America Invention Convention with a second place winner in the 8th Grade Division and one student winning "Most Technologically Advanced"

Establishment of a mentoring program called "Priority Male"

Received a Webb-Craft Grant to build an outdoor classroom and amphitheater area

Received Palmetto Pride grant to assist with school beautification

Received additional Webb-Craft Grants to support the integration of World Geography and General Music Standards in a program called "Journey of the Beat," to support a field experience activity for our resource students called "Motivating Students through Life Experiences," and to help fund an eighth grade field study to Washington, D.C.

Two groups of teachers made presentations at the South Carolina Middle School Association Annual Conference

One teacher received a "Middle School Magic" award through the South Carolina Middle School Association for her lesson entitled "Road Trips of the South"

Two student winners in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers National Water Safety Poster Contest

Seventeen MESA winners (9 school level, 6 regional level and 2 state level winners)

Received continued accreditation through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools

Plans for the 2005-2006 school year include:

Continue to seek grant opportunities for school improvement and recognition Continue to seek opportunities to present exemplary lessons at conferences/meetings Continue the incentive plan to promote achievement and social responsibility
